

Orange Team February Newsletter

In February we will begin our fairy tale unit. We will be reading The Three Little Pigs and Humpty Dumpty. This unit will allow your student to become familiar with story sequencing. We will also be doing experiments where the students make a house out of different materials to see which one they can blow down and which one they cannot.

Our letters of the month will be S, V, K, F. Please encourage your child to learn these letter names and the sounds they make.

Positive Behavior Support

February is the month of compassion here at PCEC. Our Character Kids of the month are Freya Scott for our a.m. class and Sofia Stratienko for our p.m. class. Thank you for showing your friends compassion each day!

The students re-enacted Jan Brett's The Mitten and scrunched into our "mitten" making room for all the animals!

Read the Environment

Studies show that exposure to letters and words are the best way to introduce phonetics and early literacy. You can practice "reading" your environment every time you're in the car. Familiar signs are building blocks to literacy later on!
